

INTERNAL INVESTIGATION REFERENCE ARREST REPORT #18-00459

On Friday 03/09/18 I received a voicemail while out of the office. The subject leaving the voicemail identified herself as [REDACTED] who wanted to file a grievance about an officer using unnecessary restraint in handcuffing her during an arrest. I forwarded this email to the Chief of Police since I was out of the office so he was aware of the situation. On Monday 03/12/18 the Chief of Police asked me to conduct an internal investigation into the arrest of [REDACTED]. This arrest of [REDACTED] was the result of a traffic stop conducted by Officer Borowiec on Thursday 03/08/18.

I wanted to conduct an in-person interview with [REDACTED] to get her statement about the alleged unnecessary restraint. I called the number that was originally left with the voicemail from 03/09/18. I called that number, 312-[REDACTED] on the following dates and times and noted the results:

- 03/13/18 @ 1438 hours – the phone rang several times and then heard a recording that the person you are calling has a voicemail box has not been set up yet.
- 03/14/18 @ 1442 hours – the phone did not ring and then heard a recording that the person you are calling has a voicemail box that has not been set up yet.
- 03/15/18 @ 1300 hours – the phone did not ring and then heard a recording that the person you are calling has a voicemail box that has not been set up yet.
- 03/20/18 @ 1339 hours – the phone rang several times and then heard a recording that the person that you are calling has a voicemail box that has not been set up yet.

On 03/20/18 at approximately 1444 hours our secretary asked if I had called a woman named [REDACTED] as she was on the line. I asked the secretary to transfer the call to me. I spoke to a female who identified herself as [REDACTED]. I told her I was the one that called her and wanted to schedule a time to sit down and interview her about her arrest. She advised me that she is not available during the week. I offered for her and her attorney to come in on a weekend but she declined. She stated that she may be interested in coming in for an interview in the future after the court case is settled.

I reviewed the original arrest report from Officer Borowiec and also the written report that Sergeant Auriemma filed regarding his investigation into the incident along with 3 pictures taken. Please see both reports.

I reviewed two videos that were available. The first video was the in-car audio/video from Officer Borowiec's vehicle. The second video was the in-station audio/video of the arrestee inside interrogation room 3. Please see both videos.

I asked Officer Borowiec if he double-locked his handcuffs during the arrest of [REDACTED]. Officer Borowiec stated that he doesn't believe he did so. I instructed Officer Borowiec to double-lock his handcuffs whenever possible.

Based on the reports and videos regarding this arrest I cannot find any excessive use of force used by Officer Borowiec during the arrest of [REDACTED]. This closes out this investigation into arrest report # 18-00459 pending the willingness of [REDACTED] to volunteer to be interviewed regarding the incident.

* 03-08-2018 20:10 - BOROWIEC, BARTLOMIEJ ****

On 03/08/2018 at approximately 1747 hours I was on patrol and was heading southbound Harlem Ave, just past Cullom Ave in the curb lane. In front of me I observed a gold in color 2007 Lexus RX350 SUV, bearing Illinois Registration [REDACTED], and ran the registration through the LEADS database. The registered owner, Sandi K. Cajigas, of this vehicle returned with Suspended Driving Privileges for Financial Reasons. At that time, I pulled next to the vehicle to confirm the physical identifiers of the registered owner. Upon confirming the driver matched the physical descriptors, I proceeded to curb the vehicle by activating my emergency lights and sirens. The vehicle was curbed in the right turning lane into the Harlem Irving Plaza Mall, approximately on the 4100 block of Harlem.

I proceeded to make contact with the driver and instructed her to provide me a Driver's License and valid proof of insurance. While Cajigas was looking for her documents, I asked her "Are you Sandi?". Cajigas replied to me yes and asked the reason for the traffic stop. She then handed me her Illinois Driver's License [REDACTED] and expired proof of insurance. Before returning to my squad car, I asked Cajigas if she knew the reason why her driving privileges were suspended. She replied to me that she did not know the reason why she is Suspended. I then asked Cajigas if she had any recent traffic or court cases that would lead to Suspension of Driving Privileges. Cajigas again said she does not know why. I then asked her if she had any previous Driving Under the Influence cases, unpaid parking tickets or moving violations that were not paid, or other financial issues that could also lead to a Suspension of Driving Privileges. At this point Cajigas started to become agitated with my questions.

At this point, I told Cajigas I am returning to my squad car and to run her information through LEADS again. I contacted MCD Dispatch on the air and Cajigas was confirmed to be Suspended Driving Privileges. At this point, I called for a back up unit on scene and a tow for the impoundment of the vehicle.

A few moments later, Wysocki #14 arrived on scene and I made contact with Cajigas again. I instructed Cajigas to turn off her vehicle and to leave the keys in the ignition. Upon her exit of the vehicle, Cajigas handed me valid proof of insurance. I then instructed her to step towards the rear of the vehicle and to place her hands on the back window glass. I then asked Cajigas to place her hands behind her back as she is being placed under arrest for driving. I placed the handcuffs on Cajigas over the sweater sleeves that she was wearing and at this point she became irrate on the street why she was being placed under arrest. I told Cajigas that I was running vehicle registrations of vehicles that I come across on patrol. Cajigas started to yell at me stating "This is an illegal practice, I had no legal right running her information through LEADS, and that I was profiling her on the street". She also yelled that I had racially profiled her on the street when I pulled up next to her on the street to confirm the descriptors of the registered driver. After placing her into my squad car for transport, I opened the door and politely asked Cajigas if she wants me to grab anything of importance from the car before it gets towed. At this point, Cajigas became belligerent and started to yell at me once more that she needs to get her vehicle back tonight. Cajigas related to me that she wishes to car to be towed to her place of employment. At this point, I related to Cajigas that I have a policy to follow and the vehicle is being towed to 9344 Byron, Schiller Park, IL by Village Tow (LEADS [REDACTED] on 03/08/2018 at 1855 hours. R/O Wysocki returned numerous to the vehicle to grab the belongings that Cajigas was demanding us to grab as it will not be safe in a locked and secure tow facility. R/O Wysocki retrieved a set of house keys that were attached to the car keys, a purse containing various items and documents, inside the purse he placed Cajigas personal cell phone. Ultimately Cajigas started to yell and demand that she has an envelope in the car with a recent payout from work containing over $1100.00 in cash. Cajigas related that it was under her floormat and demands us to grab it as well. R/O Wysocki retrieved this envelope and showed it to her and I related to Cajigas that it will all be counted in her presence once we get to the station. Before I left the scene, Cajigas yelled at R/O Wysocki and myself demanding we grab her very important and confidential "PPI" papers that she requires for work. She started yelling once more that I should know what PPI papers are and that they included very sensitive Federal government information. I again asked her what she needed to from the car and said a satchel bag containing those very sensitive documents. R/O Wysocki retrieved a blue in color, cloth in material, bag type item containing multiple documents etc. Finally R/O Wysocki retrieved a legal pad notebook from the car before it was administratively towed from the scene. All items retrieved by R/O Wysocki were placed in the front passenger seat of my car.

I then began to transport Cajigas back to the Norridge Police Department to be charged and processed. I called in my mileage and began to merge into traffic when Cajigas demanded to have the cuffs taken off her wrists as they were hurting her. I related to Cajigas that the Police station is a few blocks away and that they will be removed in just a few minutes.

Upon my arrival to the Norridge Police, I instructed Cajigas to exit the vehicle with my assistance and the minute she was standing she again became loud and confrontational demanding to have the cuffs taken off her as she is being hurt by them. I then walked Cajigas to the lock up area and told her that everything in this portion of the building is audio and visually recorded. I then told Cajigas to turn around so that I could take the cuffs off her and to run a fingerprint inquiry. Once again, Cajigas became loud and belligerent demanding to talk to a Supervisor so he can take pictures of cuff placement and the injuries she claimed she succumbed to. I called for my Supervisor to show up and Sergeant Auriemma #204 made contact with Cajigas in the lock-up area. Sergeant Auriemma asked Cajigas what is wrong and she screamed at him stating that the cuffs were too tight for a female of her size and why was she handcuffed in the manner that she was. She yelled that I'm a bigger male in stature and had no reason to be concerned for my safety when she was placed in cuffs. She continued to yell at Sergeant Auriemma without allowing him to complete a sentence when she was just blurting out things in regards to the arrest and how "curt" I was with her on the street.

Sergeant Auriemma then asked Cajigas to turn around so he can take the cuffs off her and she began to yell and cry that her wrist bones are being hurt and demanded to have pictures taken of cuff placement and her wrists afterwards. Sergeant Auriemma returned to Roll Call to grab a evidence camera and documented the cuff placement on Cajigas. Sergeant Auriemma photographed the cuffs being on her wrists in the appropriated place on the wrists, and they were on top of her sweater sleeves. This buffer of soft material did not allow the metal cuffs to come into contact with the wrists. After the cuffs were taken off, Cajigas complained of injuries to her wrists and showed Sergeant Auriemma red marks on her small in size and bony wrists. Sergeant Auriemma related to her that these marks are typical of having handcuffs placed on one's person and would go away. Sergeant Auriemma then repeatedly asked Cajigas if she needed medical attention and would like to have an Ambulance evaluate her. Cajigas denied medical assistance after being asked numerous times by Sergeant Auriemma.

During the time when Sergeant Auriemma went to Roll Call to get a camera, Cajigas demanded to know my last name. I told her that my last name will be on all the documents she will received and that it is clearly visible on my vest carrier. I then told Cajigas my last name twice after she asked to hear it again. After the cuffs were taken off and photos were taken, Sergeant Auriemma then explained to Cajigas the reasoning behind my stop, the arrest, and placement of cuffs on Cajigas. To which point, Cajigas related to Sergeant Auriemma that she had felt violated by me on the street at the time of the stop. Sergeant Auriemma asked her if I placed my hands on her in any inappropriate manner to which Cajigas related that the cuffs were too tight. Sergeant Auriemma then asked if I used any profanity towards her while conducting my stop to which again Cajigas related I did not. Lastly Sergeant Auriemma asked Cajigas if I used any racial slurs during my arrest, to which Cajigas related that I once again racially profiled her because she looked to be of non-European descent and with dark skin complexion.

R/O Avino #23 then came into the lock up area and searched Cajigas. She then ran a fingerprint inquiry on her and she came back positively identified. I then counted the envelope containing $1200.00 in various bills in front of Cajigas and R/O Avino. The money was then placed back into a sealed envelope and initialed by Cajigas and myself. At this point, Cajigas called numerous people alerting them of where she was and why she was arrested.

I subsequently charged and processed her with the following:

Cajigas has an upcoming court case at the 3rd District Cook County Courthouse, 2121 Euclid Ave, Rolling Meadows, IL, on April 24, 2018, in room 209, at 1330 hours.
